New Advertisements.
St. Louis visitors should read the advertisement of Messrs. HUNNELL & HUNT. Their store will be found at 120, Fourth street, where they offer for sale every article of utility or luxury, at uniform prices. Ladies who visit the City will find their stock rich and rare, embracing the full range of styles.

Messrs. NANSON & BARTHOLOW are in the receipt of an extensive and new stock of Furniture, which they are offering at low prices. Their stock was laid in under the supervision of one of the firm, and is exceedingly handsome. Give them a call.

W. A. NELSON offers inducements to dealers in books for sale. Our brethren of the press should look at his stock.

Arrival of the Africa.

New York, Sept. 22.
The Africa has arrived with 135 passengers, having left Liverpool on the 10th. The English papers copy from the American journals, Lord John Russell's manifesto, or the tripartite question of Cuba. The document is a surprise to the public. There is nothing decisive on the Turkish question. The Czar's reply could not arrive by the courier for some days.

The Monitor announces that Government is not buying up breadstuffs. This is a most extraordinary statement, as it is notorious that she has purchased immense quantities.

France is quiet, except some insignificant bread riots at Bordeaux.

The Emperor is still at Dieppe. The navigation laws are repealed until December, on all vessels passing French rivers or canals.

The Turkish question is undecided. It is rumored at Paris that the Czar will refuse the Turkish modification of the Vienna note. The fact that Russia hesitates to telegraph her reply, has awakened new anxiety, and depressed both the English and French funds.

The Roman territories are uneasy in consequence of the scarcity of food.

From the Occidental Messenger, 17th.
WELL DONE, JACKSON COUNTY.—On Monday last our County Court came nobly up and subscribed $75,000 stock to the Inland Pacific Railroad route. This was to get toward making up the $400,000 required by the law of December 25th, 1852. The counties on the inland route below us, sent us word, that if Jackson county would make up $75,000, they would make up the balance in spite of the cavilling and subterfuge of the Board of Directors of the Pacific Railroad. This county responded to that proposition—and it now remains to be seen what those counties below will do. We hope before this time the full amount of $400,000 has been subscribed, in good faith, as stock to this road. For some time past we have been laboring under the impression that all of the amount had been subscribed except $75,000; but the Board of Directors of the Company refused to enter the subscriptions from some of the counties in the stock book of the company, until the whole amount was made up, as some of the subscriptions are conditional. The following is the resolution adopted by the Board:

Resolved, That it is inexpedient to act upon the conditional subscriptions for the inland route under Jefferson city at this time, and that the orders of the county courts of Monticello, Pettis and Johnson counties, this day presented, authorizing subscriptions, be received and filed for future consideration.

SAMUEL CORP, JR.,
Secretary P. R. R. Co.
We expect to hear from the counties below to a few days, and we will then know how the matter stands.

WASHINGTON ITEMS.—The Union announces Senator Shields health as much improved, and he will soon be able to attend to business.

The Union has another article defending the President against charges made by Gen. Clark, and intimates that the latter was disappointed because he failed to receive a military commission.

Intelligence has been received of a large discovery of gold on Rio Merced; thousands of Mexicans are flocking thither.

General Almonte, the Mexican Minister, has arrived.

The Intelligence maintains the correctness of its statement regarding France and England in the Costa affair.

The Union continues to assail the Hardshells. After approving the sentiments of Everett's letter, it intimates that no notice will be taken of Lord John Russell's note by the Secretary of State, as it was addressed to Mr. Crumpton and not to the State Department.

A great Hunker democratic ratification meeting took place last night in the Park. Just as James T. Brady rose to speak, the platform containing speakers, reporters, and three or four hundred men and boys fell, with a tremendous crash: two men had each a leg broken, and others were injured, though not seriously. The meeting was organized in the City Hall, and Brady resumed his remarks.

"DIGEST." Such is the TRUE meaning of the word "PEPSIN," or of the two Greek words from which it is derived. This is the significant and appropriate title of the true Digestive Fluid, or gastric Juice, prepared by Dr. J. S. No art of man can equal its curative powers. It renders good eating perfectly consistent with health. See the figure of the Ox in another part of this paper.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION.

In the Howard Circuit Court, June Term, 1853. Tuesday, June 7, 1853.

James Halley and others, against

Dora Veal and others.

NOW at this day come the plaintiffs, and by leave of the court file their amended petition, setting forth that James Vallandigham, late of Fayette county, in the State of Kentucky, departed this life sometime in the year 1847, having made and published his last will and testament, by which he bequeathed to the petitioners, Mary Gess, Barbara Halley, wife of James Halley, Elizabeth Veal, and Ann McCall, wife of James McCall, the several tracts of land mentioned in the original petition filed in this cause, viz: The north-east quarter of section ten, township forty-nine, range fifteen, and the south-west quarter of section twenty-one, in township fifty and range fifteen, and the south-east quarter of section thirty, in township forty-nine and range fifteen. They further set forth that many years prior to the death of the said James Vallandigham, he placed in the hands of John C. Vallandigham, his son, money to purchase and pay for the said tracts of land, and to take conveyance to the same to the said James Vallandigham, but that the said John C. Vallandigham, instead of taking the conveyance as directed, purchased said lands in his own name, and took the certificates of purchase to himself, and the patents have since been in his name. That to the death of said James Vallandigham, the said John C. Vallandigham, having been a minor, the said John C. Vallandigham, jr. that said John C. Vallandigham, jr. departed this life, having by his last will and testament bequeathed his supposed interest in the above mentioned tracts of land to the petitioners, namely Sally Chapman, Theodosia Thompson, George T. Vallandigham, jr. and they have petitioned the court for a decree directing the respective interests in the above mentioned lands to Mary Gess, Barbara Halley, Elizabeth Veal, and Ann McCall; and it being shown by the court that the said John C. Vallandigham, jr. was a minor at the time of his death, and that the said partition was made in violation of the laws of the State, the court has decreed that the said partition be set aside, and that the said lands be sold to satisfy the claims of the said James Vallandigham, jr. and that the proceeds of the sale be divided among the petitioners in proportion to their respective interests in the said lands. The court has also decreed that the costs of this suit be paid by the said John C. Vallandigham, jr. and his heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and assigns in law. The court has also decreed that the said partition be set aside, and that the said lands be sold to satisfy the claims of the said James Vallandigham, jr. and that the proceeds of the sale be divided among the petitioners in proportion to their respective interests in the said lands.
